

YARD4ALL

Invitation to Join a Community of Practice

Yard4All - Using the school's yard for ALL children's wellbeing and development

Yard4All is a project focused on bringing together children with special educational needs and children without impairment in a formal and non-formal educational context.

Get to know more at: www.yard4all-project.org

During this first event we will focus on introducing our Community of Practice and the use of permaculture in schools.

When: 4th of March, 2021

Time: 11:00 am - 13:30 pm (CET)*

Working Agenda:

11:00 - Introduction to Yard4All project

11:10 - Yard4All Community of Practice

What is the Yard4All Community of Practice? (Aproximar, CRL)

11:30 - Break

11:45 - Permaculture in schools: aims and possibilities

*Guest: Prof. João Jorge

12:45 - Q&A

Become part of our community by registering on this link:

<https://bit.ly/3bBhHAU>

Note: Attendance is limited and we encourage you to register early to avoid any disappointment.

All times shown are for Central European Time (CET) (Brussels/Paris). We strongly recommend that you check the time for your own location using: www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/fixedform.html*

João Jorge holds both a degree in Architecture and Urbanism and a Certification in Permaculture Design by the Permaculture Institute (Australia).*

