

We went to Graz!

Finally the time had come. The second week of training started. This time we headed towards Austria, Graz. The organisation 'atempo' hosted and provided a fantastic reception.

During this training, the people with learning disabilities were central. Together with a few professionals per country, they immersed themselves in a real leisure experience week.

We like to take you through the week using the 'photovoice' method.

Team Belgium took pictures during the week, and pictures say more than long texts!

The meals in Austria were delicious. Here are Martin & Serkan eating.

Time for a group photo!

We visited the castle 'Eggenberg'.

We went climbing. You see Serkan climbing. It was so much fun!

We also did crafts. Here is Wesly & Marcsi proud of his work!

Where is Wesley's body?

The museum (CoSa Graz) visit was fantastic!

Working, discussing and getting to know all the different cultures!

Next stop: Ljubljana!

The final week of training is coming up. We head to Ljubljana, where this time the local informal supporters will take centre stage. You'll read all about that in the next newsletter.
